East Tennessee Crops.

We took occasion a week past to visit some of our old friends and acquaintances in the several counties of East Tennessee-traveling some in buggies, but mostly on the cars. We had a good view of the growing crops, and heard from gentlemen of reliability, from those counties we did not pass through. Our trip was, for the most part, through Jefferson, Grainger, Greene, Washington and Carter. The corn crop exceeds, in quantity and excellence, any thing we have seen in Upper East Tennessee for

It lets off the warp from the warp-beam, winds up the cloth, throws the shuttle, and treads the treadle-all by the simple and easy motion of turning a crank, about the size of a small grind-stone. ## Public Speaking.

Our letters show that Judge Houk has been doing good service on the stump for the Union cause. And when we speak of the Union cause we mean the loyal radical cause, in opposition to the Copper-Johnson cause. During the present month the Judge has spoken at Montgomery, Crossville, Jamestown, Huntsville and Jacksborough, to large and attentive crowds, and even those opposed to the views of the speaker admit the damaging effects of his speeches upon the new Democratic party organized at Philadelphia. Our information-and it is altogether re- old epigram on Niobe says: liable-is to the effect that the common people of the mountain counties are rapidly settling down upon the Radical platform, and intend to stand by the Congress of the United States. ## Camp-Meeting and Vandalism.

(From the Baltimore American.) FREDERICK, August 11th, 1866. The members of the Methodist Episcopal Church are now holding a camp-meeting in the adjacent county of Montgomery, near Hynttstown. A majority of the church-going people of that part of Montgomery being Methodists, the attendance is large. It has been their custom for many years to had such a meeting in that locality, and always to had such a meeting in that locality, and always tight such a meeting in that locality and always tight such a meeting in that locality and always tight such a meeting in the State, by the State officers; and by the courts, not by a mob. hold such a meeting in that locality, and always, until now, without disturbance or molestation. Recently, however, Revs. J. P. Hall and W. H. Wilson, the latter of your city, (of the Methodist Episcopal Church South,) have been stiring up the passions of the most vicious part of that community, and the cordingly, on last Wednesday night week, a party of the followers of the said reverends went to the grove selected for the camp and peeled the bark from more than three hundred of the trees, hoping there-

We have perfect health. As to our morals, they will compare favorably with those of any other town, compare favorably with those of any other town, were not to be deprived of their usual religious lesupon the ground plainly show.

The enemies of the camp, having attempted to destroy the grove, circulated a report that the meeting would not be held, hoping thus to prevent the usual attendance from this place and the adjacent community. Failing in these attempts, they have since threatened to poison the spring. Proper means have been adopted to defeat the execution of this diabolical purpose. Until the "anti-political" preachers, mentioned above, and their co-laborers, made their appearance among our neighbors of Montgomery, the Churches enjoyed harmony and peace; but their advent has been the signal for scenes of violence worthy of Hottentots. Some of the followers of these reverends recently broke into the Hyattstown M. E. Church on Saturday evening, and engaged in gambling and drinking all night, and until Mr. Hall arrived on Sabbath morning and preached to them!! These church desecrators are boisterous advocates sale, and our people will be able to supply those of "my policy." As an evidence of this, some of these misled persons, when remonstrated with, and told that, as they had no interest in religion, they should not disturb Christian people, replied that with political matters!!! The following flaming notice, published in the

Maryland Union, of this city, throws light upon the SELF-ACTING HAND LOOM .- We called at the above enormities; and these enormities are a commentary upon their ecclesiastical tolerance and freedom from "partisan proscriptiveness."

NEAR HYATTSTOWN, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, MD. ## Views of President Johnson.

From the following it will be seen that all officers platform agreed upon by the Philadelphia Convention, are to be removed.

In Washington, on Friday, the New Hampshire delegation to the Convention called upon President Johnson, and after an address from its chairman, at the residence of Mr. M. F. Smith, Main Mr. C. B. Upon the conclusion of these remarks, and the reading of the resolution, the members of the delegation were severally introduced to the President. Persons desiring to send their daughters, will do Mr. Johnson then remarked that he could not feel indifferent to this expression of confidence in him and of approbation of the Administration. This encouragement was now most acceptable and agreeable to him. The dangers that now threatened the country were greater than ever before. He felt proud of the opportunity of making the personal acquaintance of the delegates.

Hereupon a desultory conversation ensued, in which the delegates explained that they desired to make known to the President the condition of political affairs in the State of New Hampshire. It was believed that the State could be carried in favor can always be had of Messrs. It was a duty the Administration owed itself, that strength and power should be given to those who maintain the principles declared by that great body of National men who met this week in convention at Philadelphia.
